Good Shepherd with Fr. Bill

The Thursday before Easter our parish school Pre-Kindergarten and Kindergarten classes gathered in the Courtyard for “The Good Shepherd” with Father Bill.

This is a long standing tradition at St. Viator in which the students learn first hand what happens when a shepherd loses one of his flock.

April is designated as National Child Abuse - Protection Month

PROMISE TO PROTECT

PLEDGE TO HEAL

BELIEVE IN THE POSSIBILITY OF HELP AND HEALING. THERE IS HOPE.

Did you know . . . Hope is rising? Throughout scripture there is evidence that we are called to be ambassadors of hope and healing. Did you know children of abuse long to hear this message of hope? Victims of crime, their family and loved ones need to know that their voices are heard. Organizations throughout the nation are striving to share the message that He has risen and there is hope. Each of us has a unique ability to support individuals who are hurting, to promote healthy relationships, and to build communities that are safe from those who may want to do harm. How has He called you to be an ambassador of hope and healing?

If you feel you have been a victim of abuse you can call the advocates office of the Archdiocese of Las Vegas at 702.235.7723.

John Thomas Keating
Loy Prado

Prayer List Procedure - Individuals will remain on the prayer list for three months (date is when added or re-added to the Prayer List). Please call the office if an individual is in continued need of prayers.

Faces of Hunger

Thank you to everyone who generously donated to this year's Faces of Hunger Campaign to assist our neighbors served through the programs of Catholic Charities who are struggling with food insecurity or are in need of a home.

Beloved Tradition Returns at St. Viator Parish

by Eileen Daday | Apr 2, 2024 | News Archives reprinted with permission from Viatorian magazine

It has been five years since altar servers have been part of Holy Week Masses at St. Viator Catholic Community in Las Vegas. Sidelining these young acolytes was among the many ways in which the pandemic disrupted daily life.

However, this year at St. Viator, altar servers returned during Holy Week and just seeing these young people actively involved in the liturgies deepened the Easter joy throughout the parish.

“All of them were trained and the week was beautiful because of them,” says Associate Rosy Hartz, Youth Faith Formation Coordinator, adding that none of it would have been possible without the support of their parents.

Corbin

One of them, Corbin, described the experience this way: “I was nervous at first, but I enjoyed it because it was a very beautiful Mass.”

Servers were part of Masses celebrated by all of the Viatorians at parish, including Fr. Robert M. Egan, CSV, Fr. Lawrence Lentz, CSV, Fr. Richard Rinn, CSV, and even Associate Deacon Michael Underwood, during the Service of Light at the Easter Vigil.

Altar servers prepare to process in with Fr. Egan

“The joy and pride from parents to see their children be able to take part in the holiest of days was nothing short of amazing,” Hartz adds.

Training altar servers and celebrating the liturgy with them is another way Viatorians accompany young people on their faith journey. After all, as Viatorians they are called to accompany young people where they are at, as stated in the community’s vision statement: “In the spirit of our founder, Fr. Louis Querbes, we minister to and with young people in the Church, and are committed to their faith development and active membership in their respective faith communities.”
