Dear Parishioners,

On August 18th we will be celebrating Stewardship Sunday.

Volunteerism or Stewardship - there is a difference.

Volunteerism implies I have a choice; I can take it or leave it. Stewardship is a way of life. Stewardship is recognizing all that we have or are is a gift from God. Stewardship means I share my time, talents and treasure with the greater community. Monsignor Thomas McGread, a long time speaker on all things stewardship once said, "Once one chooses to become a disciple of Jesus Christ, stewardship is not an option."

St. Viator Parish invites you to live your faith more deeply. Registering in a parish is a declaration of your desire to be part of a Catholic community and a commitment to the life of the parish family. To clearly state your Catholic commitment in all its dimensions brings you advantages, recognition, and responsibilities of many kinds. When you register it is easier to stay in communication and respond to needs you may have.

Stewardship Sunday will highlight the many opportunities where you can help with your time, talent and treasure. Remember, our parish ministries could not take place without your contributions to keep the lights on and our buildings maintained. There are many ways you can give, including; electronically, mailing your donation, or dropping it in the offertory basket.

We hope you will take time to stop by the parish center hall on Stewardship Sunday, August 18th, after the 8:00 AM, 10:00 AM or Noon Masses to find a ministry that works best for you and your schedule to give your talent and time - even if it is an hour a month. Please prayerfully consider how stewardship will be a part of your life.

Know you and your families are in my prayers.

Sincerely,

Father Richard Rinn, C.S.V.

Drama Ministry gives you the opportunity to share your enthusiasm and talents with fellow members of St. Viator as part of Mass.

We're always looking for crew members as well as actors – adults as well as students! Commitment is made to one production at a time, so you can see if the rehearsal and performance schedule fits your calendar. If you can make costumes or help with organizing props, we can also use your help.

To find out about our next exciting production please come to Stewardship Sunday on August 18th to learn more. You can also contact Bob Blaskey at ministrers@stviator.org And watch the parish bulletin & SVS Viator Voice for upcoming opportunities.

GUEST SPEAKER:
DONNA ROSS

DONNA ROSS is a cradle Catholic who strayed from the Church for many years before she realized what she was missing! A powerful call of the Holy Spirit brought her back to the Church with a new appreciation for her faith. She ended a 25-year career with the Magic Kingdom of Disney in 1994 to work for the Eternal Kingdom of God. With numerous skills developed in the workplace and enriched by the Lord's grace, she was called into full-time ministry in His beloved Church.

She has shared her conversion of heart on programs such as St. Joseph Catholic Radio, Wordnet's "From Kingdom to Kingdom", and Women of Grace®. In addition, she hosts the "Magnificat Proclaims" radio series, which features testimonies of Catholic women from around the world.

Donna attributes 48 years of praying for her father for his reconciliation with the Catholic Church and for her mom to become a Catholic.

She says never give up, HOPE! Donna has been a leader in the Southern California Charismatic community, founded the Palm Desert Magnificat Chapter, and currently serves as Coordinator on the Magnificat's Central Service Team. She received the Diocese of San Bernardino's "Our Lady of Guadalupe Award" for using her God-given gifts for the sake of God's people.

FAITH & WORSHIP

Once I asked a fallen-away Catholic friend of mine what he remembered about the parish priest from his youth. He said, “He was a gentle, nice guy. Kind of vanilla. Kept to himself.” It struck me that he, perhaps like many, perceive Catholic priests as the following: lonely, harmless, and self-sufficient. As a challenge both to this perception (accurate or not) and to us priests who perhaps feel a pull in that uninspiring direction, stands the mighty image of what we see in the Gospel this Sunday.

Jesus sent out his apostles, “two-by-two, with power over demons, and without money belts.” Two-by-two: they enjoyed deep fellowship and brotherhood. Power over demons: they were anything but harmless. These men wielded enormous power against evil. Without money belts: they were not self-sufficient. They needed others to help them. Not lonely, but in community. Not harmless but armed with massive spiritual energy. Not self-sufficient, but poor and in need of help.

This is a challenge to me, and perhaps to all of us, living in a rich, secularized, and individualized culture. Do I embrace my priestly ministry in deep fellowship with other priests? Do I speak and act boldly to drive out evil where it is found? Do I live poorly and simply, trusting in the help of those around me even for basic needs? The fruitfulness of priestly ministry largely depends on these three traits. Let’s pray for all priests — and, by extension, all of us Christians — to live more like Jesus’ communal, poor, and powerful apostles.

Shake Off The Dust

Our kitchen floor is at least 35 years old, and it’s the ugliest color to come out of the ‘80s. But it’s a good, durable floor, and my husband, bless his heart, guards it like it was a finely finished hardwood imported from Brazil.

Every time the kids track mud and sand across its vinyl surface, he immediately gets down on his hands and knees and lovingly wipes the mess away. I’m too impatient to do this myself — we have kids, so we’re going to have a dirty floor, is my attitude. But this is the hill upon which my husband dies. On hands and knees, scraping dirt off an almost 40-year-old floor, he is the silent, long-suffering sentry, and if it kills him, he will keep these floors pristine. He is Gandalf, and the dirt is the Balrog. You shall not pass.

“Shake the dust off your feet.” This is what Christ tells his disciples to do when they — and his word — are rejected. Shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them. Why does he say that? It’s not an act of dismissal. It’s not a thumbed nose or a stuck-out tongue. No, it’s an act of caution: Don’t bring it with you. Leave it there.

When we walk through the world, we pick up a lot of dirt. Misguided notions, disordered priorities, habits, and desires that we never noticed until we realized they left a trail. We come into a situation intending to do what is right, but somehow it all goes sideways, and we walk away from it with detritus clinging to us in places we don’t notice. They wouldn’t listen. They’ll see, we think. Oh, they’ll see. They’ll see how right I was. Pride and vengeance hitch a ride on the soles of our feet, and we track them all through the world.

What to do about this? You can be like me with my ugly old floor. You can shrug your shoulders and say, “It happens, I guess. I’m only human. I meant well.”

But here’s what would be better: be like my husband. Get down on your knees and get rid of the dirt. Stop the trail in its tracks.

“So they went off and preached repentance.”

- Mark 6:12
